

DIFFERENT AGES & DIFFERENT STAGES

> THE JOURNEY

January 2017

NZC engage with Cricket Australia >
The journey begins

May 2017

Canterbury Cricket lead the way with revised format changes

June 2017

Cricket Australia join us at NZC's District Conference

July 2017

Age & Stage comes to life >
Programme build with Major Associations

August 2017

Feedback from associations comes in >
Age & Stage taking shape

October 2017

NZC pilot Age & Stage formats for the first time, all associations take part

December 2017

Age & Stage in action >
Piloted games are observed and Age & Stage sessions are held throughout the country

January 2018

Supporting the coaches involved >
Development of coaching modules begin

February 2018

Age & Stage looking the part >
Supporting documentation created

NZC Community newsletter sparks public feedback

Gary Stead backs Age & Stage with supporting videos

March 2018

All eyes are on Age & Stage >
Stuff article and Sky TV's 'The Cricket Show'

Mike Hesson and Haidee Tiffen are onboard with their supporting videos

Feedback survey sent out >
Let's get your thoughts

More engagement with Cricket Australia >
The journey continues

April 2018

Age & Stage webpage is born

Feedback survey >
The feedback is in

Age & Stage workgroup created

May 2018

Age & Stage presented at NZC Conference

May-October 2018

Time to show it off >
Promotion of Age & Stage for the 2018/19 cricket season

October 2018 onwards

The future is here >
Age & Stage is mandatory for the 2018/19 cricket season